

Film Posters: Source 1

How is the writing used in this poster?

Can you tell what the film is about?

Would you enjoy going to see this film? Why?

What questions could you ask about this film?

How are the pictures used in this poster?

What changes would you make to this poster to interest people today?

Compare this to a modern film poster. How is it different or similar?

Film Posters: Source 2

How is the writing used in this poster?

Can you tell what the film is about?

Would you enjoy going to see this film? Why?

What questions could you ask about this film?

How are the pictures used in this poster?

What changes would you make to this poster to interest people today?

Compare this to a modern film poster. How is it different or similar?

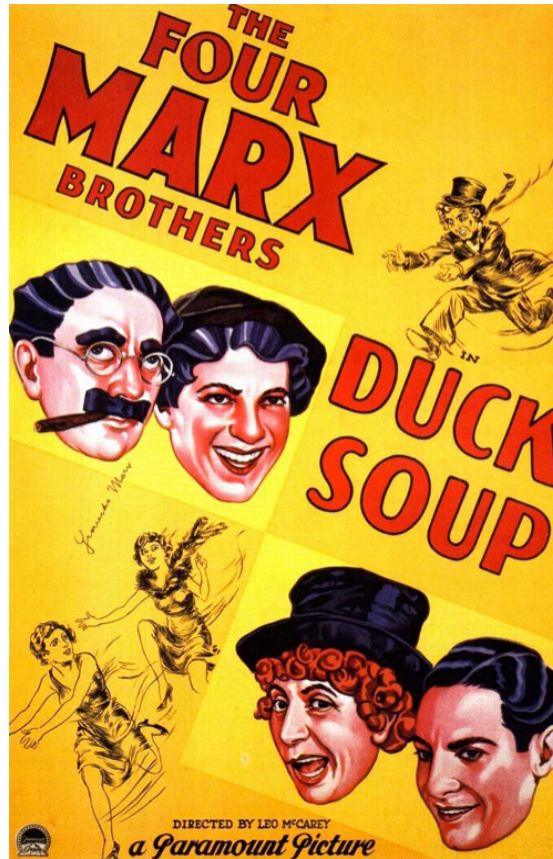

Film Posters: Source 3

How is the writing used in this poster?

Can you tell what the film is about?

Would you enjoy going to see this film? Why?

What questions could you ask about this film?

How are the pictures used in this poster?

What changes would you make to this poster to interest people today?

Compare this to a modern film poster. How is it different or similar?

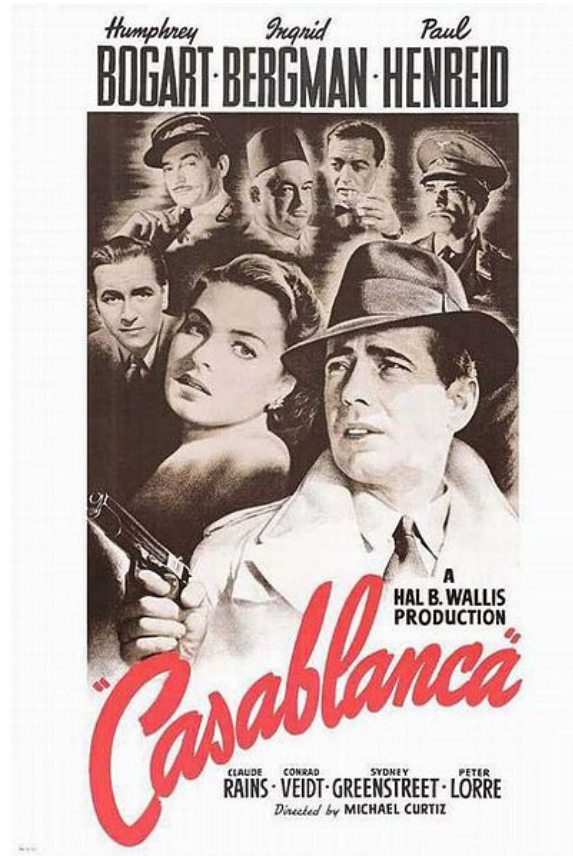

Film Posters: Source 4

How is the writing used in this poster?

Can you tell what the film is about?

Would you enjoy going to see this film? Why?

What questions could you ask about this film?

How are the pictures used in this poster?

What changes would you make to this poster to interest people today?

Compare this to a modern film poster. How is it different or similar?

Film Posters: Source 5

How is the writing used in this poster?

Can you tell what the film is about?

Would you enjoy going to see this film? Why?

What questions could you ask about this film?

How are the pictures used in this poster?

What changes would you make to this poster to interest people today?

Compare this to a modern film poster. How is it different or similar?

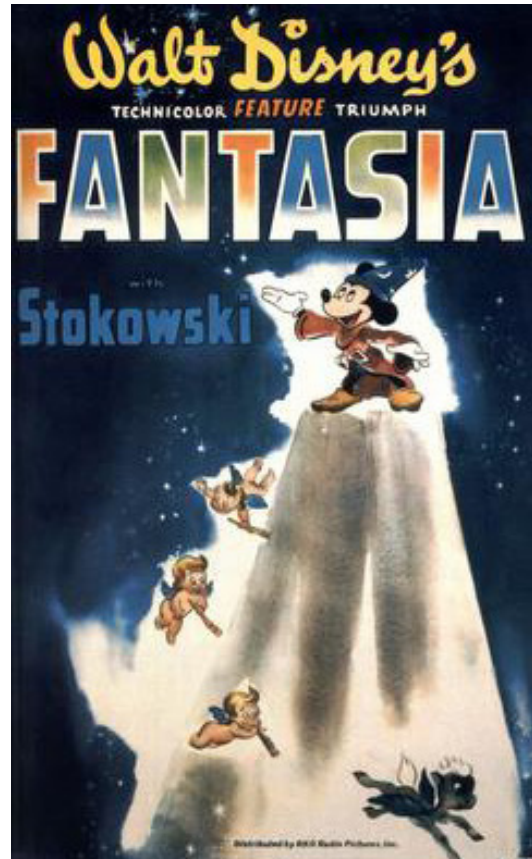

Film Posters: Source 6

How is the writing used in this poster?

Can you tell what the film is about?

Would you enjoy going to see this film? Why?

What questions could you ask about this film?

How are the pictures used in this poster?

What changes would you make to this poster to interest people today?

Compare this to a modern film poster. How is it different or similar?